Name:	Section:
As you watch the movie or very soon thereafter, ple Bring this completed sheet with you to lecture on 10
1. Note at least two specific differences between the stories in Decameron . How do these different treatm stories? (One example you can use is the change in	ents affect or change the "moral" of the
2. How does Pasolini introduce "class consciousness of Boccaccio? Does it seem to work with Boccaccio of Boccaccio?
3. Pasolini's adaption is notable for "naturalizing" the overly real, with warts and all). What effect does the erotic relations portrayed in Decameron ?
4. How many cases can you think of where language especially in order to achieve an object of desire? G	ge is used to deceive rather than tell the truth, ive two or three examples.
5. How does Pasolini approach women? Are there might say there are in Boccaccio?	any feminist dimensions to his film, as one
NOTE: If you choose to leave the movie because answer whatever you can from what you saw at what point you left the movie and briefly expenses.	of the film. In addition, on the back indicate